North Central West Virginia's only professional comedy troupe!

The Fearless Fools are a Bridgeport-based professional comedy troupe under the direction of Steve Goff, an alumni of Chicago's famous Second City. The Fearless Fools will be adding a new dimension to this year's EEO Conference as they present the training scenarios in their own inimitable style. Our conference attendees will be able to watch a real-life workplace situation unfold in real time, ask questions of the participants, and critique the way the EEO counselor or investigator handled the case.
